

AMENDMENT OR SUSPENSION OF POLICIES AND BYLAWS
BOARD POLICY NO. 1.003

It shall be the policy of the Executive Cabinet that the policies of the Executive Cabinet shall be subject to amendment only upon a majority vote of the members of the Executive Cabinet present at a meeting in the "call" for which the proposed amendment has been described in writing. The policies of the Executive Cabinet shall be subject to suspension only upon a majority vote of the members of the Executive Cabinet present at a meeting in the "call" for which the proposed suspension has been described in writing, or upon a unanimous vote of all the members of the Executive Cabinet when no such written notice has been given.

The bylaws of the Executive Cabinet shall be subject to suspension only upon a majority vote of all the members of the Executive Cabinet present at a meeting in the "call" for which the proposed suspension has been described in writing, or upon unanimous vote of all members of the Executive Cabinet when no such written notice has been given.
